We wanted to have this newsletter in your home in December, but it was impossible to get all the information by December. We have a new year ahead of us, lets work a little harder this year in our genealogical work. Please send information in to us, when requested. This helps to keep this organization going.

The past year we have been moving rather slow, but we are making some progress towards some of the goals we have set out to do. It gives me joy Hatch died 9 January 1876 at Salem, to see you members help us make these moves forward. Keep it up and encourage some of the other members of our family to help us a little more. There will be a report in the next newsletter, just what has been accomplished this past year.

In receiving the information that goes in the newsletter, especially on histories, names and dates, we take it as correct and print it as it is sent to us. If we receive any corrections, we will and want to correct them. We want the information as authentic as we can get it, for the Hatch Family News because many of our family members are relying on this information for their family group sheets. When you send in any information, send your source from where you obtained the information. We are anxious to receive more of your family group sheets and pedigree charts and wish to thank all of those so far, who have sent theirs in. If you are not sure whether you have one on our Hatch files, Please write our Genealogist and submit one or send in a new one. PLEASE check with her in bringing older family group sheets up to date.

We are thankful for the response we had from the Jacob Hatch line, because we do want to print material in this newsletter from this branch. We do need more names and addresses also information from this Jacob Hatch line, to keep it going in the family news.

The following is a little information on Jacob Hatch:

Jacob's father was the owner of a large tract of land in the heart of New York City. When Jacob heard the gospel of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints, he believed and wanted to follow them. His being too old to go, they divided the land 5 ways, 4/5 to children and they kept 1/5 for themselves. They told them to go where they wished.

Jacob's children were all born in Leroy, Jefferson, New York. Jacob and family went to Palmyra, was baptized into the Mormon Church in 1832. He saw and suffered the persecution with the saints. He attended the funeral of the Prophet Joseph Smith. His wife Elizabeth, who was a graduate Doctor, was a great help among the sick. She was killed by a shot fired in the dark, when the mob was attacking their home. She died January 1839. The family came to Utah in 1849. In 1852 Jacob married Annie Gailey.

In searching records on Jacob, there is some need to check out the father and mother of Jacob Hatch. There seems to be a question. For years the Hatch Genealogy Records have showed what we have just given you. Some seem to think his parents names was Jacob Hatch and Agatha _____. If any of you can prove this, please send us the information and your source. If in due time, we don't hear from any of you, we will do research on this, to get it straightened out.

Eighth child of Jacob Hatch and Elizabeth Wilde. Isaac Burrus Hatch, born 14 February 1823, Leroy, Jefferson, Yew York, married 10 September 1845 Lee County, Iowa (1) Mary Jane Garlick. She was born 12 August 1822, at Providence, Bedfrd, Pa., the daughter of David Garlick and Elizabeth Buck. Mary Jane Garlick died 8 July 1900 at Koosharem, Sevier, Utah. Isaac Burrus Hatch died 28 March 1853 at big Cottonwood, Salt Lake, Utah. Isaac married (2) Hannah Garlick.

OUR GENEALOGIST, EDITH H. ELKINS HAS MOVED. Her new address is 2616 Green Street., #4, Salt Lake City, Utah 84106. Give her a little extra time in answering your correspondence because she is laid up with a broken ankle.

The following is a quote so true, where it came from, I do not know. I thought you would enjoy it.

"Thousands of men breathe, move and live, pass off the stage of life, and are heard of no more. Why? They did not a particle of good in the world; and none were blessed by them. None could point to them an the instruments of their redemption. Not a line they wrote, not a word they spoke, could be recalled, and so thus they perished. Their light went out in darkness, and they were not remembered more than the insects of yesterday. Will you thus live and die, O man immortal? Live For something. Do good, and leave behind you a monument of virtue that the storm of time can never destroy. Write your name by kindness, love, and mercy on the hearts of thousands you come in contact with year by year, and you will never be forgotten. No, your name, your deeds, will be as legible on the heart you leave behind as the brow of evening."

We will complete an article that was to be continued in this issue, from issue 2, September 1965, on Page 4, Column 1, concerning some of our first genealogy on the Hatch Organization.

In the Genealogy and History of the Hatch Family, many families were not reported fully, and some not at all. Our Society was not entirely at fault for the omissions, for hundreds of our letters of inquiry were never acknowledged.

"Mr. Charles Harold Briggs¹⁰ (Charles A Briggs⁹, Elvira Hatch⁸, daughter of James⁷, Asa⁶, Joseph⁵, Ichabod⁴, Joseph³, Jonathan², Thomas¹), of minneapolis, has has contributed largely to the information we have of descendants of his second gtr great grandfather, Asa Hatch, Spencer E. Smith⁹ (son of Sarah A Hatch⁸, Wait⁷, Lewis⁶, Wait⁵, Edward⁴, Samuel³, Jonathan², Thomas¹), of St. Paul, Minnesota, has been another kind friend, who deserves mention for the preparation of historical sketches of some of his ancestors, especially for that of Thomas¹ and Jonathan² and for the gift of the map of falmouth, the old home of this ancestor of ours. Frank D. Hatch⁹ (Charles B. ⁸, Frank⁷, Joseph⁶, Joseph⁵, Joseph⁴, Josph³, Jonathan², Thomas¹), of West Hartford, Connecticut, assisted us in tracing his branch back to 1713, and supplied us with many addresses of kindred. One more dear friend must not be; forgotten, Mr Silas Alonzo Hatch⁸ (Joseph⁷, Nathaniel⁶, Ebenezar⁵, Joseph⁴, Joseph³, Jonathan², Thomas¹), of Bloomington, Wisconsin, who has been aiding us since 1916, and though 88 years of age, has been the first to order two books, with a probable order of six more.

Space will not permit us to mention the many of true friends we have found who have spared no pains to aid us all they could. The sympathy and support they have given us through the long years of our tedious and oftentimes "trying experiences of seeking through the darkness of the past. a name, or perhaps a family, fast sinking into historical oblivion," has indeed been commendable. None but those who have taken a hand in this labor can appreciate the satisfaction felt by us as a result of the kindly words and generous help afforded by these, our friends."

How? When? and Where? did our Hatch Organization get started?

In regards to the suggestions placed in the suggestion box, which was printed in September 1965 issue, this is what has been done so far.

1. President to be elected for two years term and Vice President to be considered as new President. This will be presented at our big April meeting when Officers are usually elected. Be there so you can voice your opinion or write us before April.
2. As to a large pedigree chart to be available for each one. It is in it's final stages now. We will tell you about it in the next issue, how it came about and how you can get one.
3. The books that have been published on Hatch line are in the Archives Library. Volume 1, has some information in it on the Ira Stearns Hatch line. The volumes are from 1 to 8, volume 7 and 8 are combined. Most of the information is on the Jeremiah line. I believe there are a few sets left, for sale. Write to Aura C, Hatch, 85 East 300 South, Provo, Utah. He also has printed copies, of the Lorenzo Hill Hatch Journal, for those who come from this line, (who is from the Jeremiah line.
4. We hope to make some names available to you as far as original research of our Hatch Genealogy goes. There are so many it would be impossible to get all of them. Ruth Hatch Hale, at one time was our Genealogist. She went back East and went through many records for our research, also a great deal of correspondence was done. These old letters are in the possession of the Hatch Genealogy Society. I hope we can get this all microfilmed while I am President. We are trying to take these steps now so they will be available to you in the Library. We will see what we can do to make some kind of a list for you. If any of you know some of the names of the original researchers, please let us know.

Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith p.255

Happiness is the object and design of our existence; and will be the end thereof, if we pursue the path that leads to it; and this path is virtue, uprightness, faithfulness, holiness, and keeping all the commandments of God.

We have no Pictures of Jacob Hatch, and To our knowledge, there are none. We will give a few pictures, from this line in our future issues. We have just received two different histories in the mail from Emma Miles. They differ from each other. We will give you the one written by Arminnie Hatch Sorenson, Great-grand daughter of Jacob Hatch, now, and the other one in the next issue of Jacob Hatch line.

History of Jacob Hatch

Jacob Hatch was born 15 April 1773, in Green Mountains, Vermont. He was the son of John Hatch and Annie Chalker. He married first Elizabeth Wilde, 1 Jan. 1786, at Hampton, Mass. She died about Oct. 1847, at Little Keg, Iowa. She was the daughter of Thomas Wilde and Annie Williams. He married the second time in 1852, Hannah Gailey, who was born in 1815, Lankshire, Eng. She died in Payson, Utah, in 1858.

While Jacob Hatch and his wife Elizabeth were living in Little Keg Creek, their house was surrounded by a mob at about 2 A.M. The mob was throwing stones through the windows, banging at the door and tearing at the roof of the house. Jacob prepared to fire at the mob telling his wife to get under the bed to escape the flying stones. She said, "Oh father, they might kill you," and at that moment must have rushed to the door to try to hold it. He fired through the door into the darkness not knowing but what she was under the bed. She groaned and fell. Upon discovering he had shot his wife he ran over to his son Isaac's who lived a few rods away. He said, "Isaac I have killed your dear old mother." Isaac and his wife, Mary Jane accompanied him back to his cabin where they found her lying on her back in a pool of blood. Mary Jane ran to the cabin in her bare feet, not taking time to dress them, and she splashed in the life's blood of her mother-in-law. This was about two months before her son, George Andrew Hatch was born.

The bullet passed through Elizabeth's shoulder near the heart and right wrist, through the door, killing one of the mob, and embedding itself in the wagon box. The mob on finding one of their number killed picked him up and ran from the place. On 15 Sept. 1850, Jacob came to Utah by team with two of his sons and their families, settled in Salt Lake City, Utah. Then later moved to Payson, Utah. He joined the church about 1831. He worked on the Nauvoo Temple on one meal a day and went through the hardships that the Saints went through.

He had given all his property to the church in early days, so that when he was aged was under the necessity of drawing from the general tithing office for his daily needs. He would walk from Payson to Salt Lake City to see Bishop Hunter about it when he was nearly 100 years old. He died 9 Jan. 1876, at Salem, Utah. He was buried in Payson, Utah. If he had lived three more months he would have been 103 years old.

Also the following just came in the mail.

Jacob Hatch and his second wife Hannah Gailey had one child, Ellen Hannah Hatch, born 1 Feb. 1853, in Salt Lake City, Utah; she md. George Washington Brown 1 May 1870, died 12 May 1891.

Jacob's wife Hannah Gaily was born 1815, Lancaster, England; died 1858 at Payson, Utah Co., Utah.
